DBQ One Acts Cancels Fall 2019 Productions; Possibly Rescheduling in Spring 2020

Dubuque Fine Arts Players, dba DBQ One Acts, has announced that it has made the decision to cancel its fall productions for 2019. The three winning plays were to be produced in Dubuque on September 12 – 14 at the Masonic Temple. Art Roche, president of the organization, said that the board of directors decided that delays in fully casting the plays did not leave enough time for the plays to be rehearsed. “Community theater and school-based theater has grown in recent years in Dubuque, creating a larger pool of potential actors but an even larger demand for them.”

The three winning plays were:

1st place: Dinner Theater by Alex Goldberg of Burbank, CA.

2nd place: Ring and Run by Elizabeth & Peter Surdo of Erie, PA.

3rd place: There's a Traffic Jam in the Ladies Room by Stephen Karp of New York, NY.

The board regrets the cancelation and hopes to be able to reschedule these productions in Spring 2020.
